

KerML.NET Project

Individual Contributor License Agreement (CLA)

PREAMBLE

We welcome you to follow, fork, and work on, our open-source C# Libraries that are part of the “KerML.NET” project (hereafter referred to as “KerML.NET Project”). If you want to contribute to one of the components relative to the KERML.NET Project, Starion needs to ask you to complete the Contributor License Agreement (“CLA”) below.

This agreement clarifies the ability for Starion to incorporate your contributions and notably the intellectual property license granted with Contributions from any person or entity.

This license is for your protection as a Contributor as well as the protection of Starion and its users; it does not change your rights to use your own Contributions for any other purpose.

If you will be contributing on behalf of your employer, you will need to complete the corporate CLA for your company.

This Contribution License Agreement (“Agreement”) is agreed to by the party signing below (“You”), and conveys certain license rights to Starion Group S.A. and its affiliates (“Starion”) for your contributions to the KERML.NET Project.

You accept and agree to the following terms and conditions for Your present and future Contributions submitted to Starion in respect to the KERML.NET Project. Except for the license granted herein to Starion and recipients of the KERML.NET Project distributed by Starion, You reserve all right, title, and interest in and to Your Contributions.
